THREE RIVERS, FOUR DIAMONDS AND A PRESIDENT

A MOTORCAR EXCURSION ON THE

HEART OF GEORGIA RAILROAD

Americus, Georgia

Saturday, April 26, 2014
 Sunday, April 27, 2014

Pitts, Ga. To Alamo, Ga. 105 RT Miles
 Pitts, Ga. To Plains, Ga. 127 RT Miles

Come join us on our tenth motorcar excursion across most of middle Georgia. Follow the line of the old Seaboard Airline Railway through rich fertile farming country at its best. Expect to see fields of peanuts, watermelons, soybeans, cotton, corn, and Georgia's most beautiful tree, the pecan. During your two day trip you will cross three of Georgia's largest inland rivers: the Little Oconee, the Flint, and the Ocmulgee. Travel with us through some of Georgia's most beautiful countryside, through farming villages, and fields of Georgia agriculture. In two days we will travel approximately 250 plus round trip miles.

On Saturday we will travel east from the farming town of Pitts and cross the Little Oconee and Ocmulgee Rivers and turn in Alamo, the County Seat of Wheeler County. We will enjoy a B B Que lunch in Milan on our return leg.

Sunday will find us traveling west from Pitts through Cordele, the watermelon capital of the world. Shortly after leaving Cordele, we will cross the Flint River and Lake Blackshear on our way to the town of Plains. This is the boyhood and current home of former President Jimmy Carter who lives just a few blocks from town and our turnaround and lunch location. With a little luck, he will be in residence and come out to visit with us. We will pass through the towns of Seville, Cordele, Cobb, Leslie, and Americus.

Americus is the home office of the Heart of Georgia Railroad and uses former trackage of the Seaboard Airline Railway. A Central of Georgia Railway timetable, dated April 1953, lists many famous passenger trains stopping here, including: The Southwind; The Flamingo; The Seminole; The City of Miami; as well as four local passenger trains. Your cost for both wonderful days is: $175.00. I'm sorry but I can't split the days.

Requirements: You must be a member of NARCOA, have NARCOA Insurance, and have passed the Rules Test. All cars will be inspected. All NARCOA rules will apply. No refunds after March 26, 2014. All operators and passengers must wear a REFLECTORIZED Safety Vest or a Safety Shirt while on railroad property. A mobile VHF radio capable of receiving railroad frequencies strongly encouraged. The EC and Affiliate is Bobby Moreman.
